WILLIAM J. BRYAN announces that he will deliver a political address in Chicago, Saturday night, on "The New York platform," the platform referred to being the one adopted by the New York democrats recently. There will be reserved seats for ministers and newspaper men. Otherwise, seats will be free. Mr. Bryan says he will pay the hall rent and all expenses. This will be his declaration as to platform and a presidential candidate.

GOV. CHAMBERLAIN, of Oregon, has written the Presbyterian Missionary Society, of Chicago, which is urging officials of the various States to intercede for clemency for Caleb Powers, that he believes Powers is guilty and that the jury which tried him made no mistake. "I am a long ways from Kentucky but have kept in close touch with the trials given Powers and believe he should hang," he adds.

GENERAL satisfaction is expressed by democrats in Washington over the result of the New York democratic State convention, with exception of Senator Hill's prominent part. The defeat of August Belmont for delegate-at-large is said to be a Tammany victory. It is believed in New York that Judge Parker's forces will organize the convention.

The momentous question with the Fayette county republicans now is will they instruct for Ex-Gov. Bradley or George Jackson, a Lexington Negro, for delegate-at-large? This must be rather humiliating to the distinguished gentleman who takes pride in the fact of his being the only republican governor Kentucky ever had.

JUDGE R. J. BRECKINRIDGE is spoken of for county judge of Boyle. He would make a capital one. Can't Mr. Homer Baughman, who is yet very young, be induced to wait until next term, that the good old judge may be nominated by acclamation? We put the suggestion in the form of a motion.

BILL OWENS, the dirtiest turncoat in the State, was declared the nominee for Congress in the Fifth district by the republican district committee, which held the candidacy of Charles A. Parker to be invalid because he had not presented a list of election officers along with his announcement.

D. O. Groff, editor of the Jessamine News, has announced his candidacy for the Legislature.

POLITICAL.

Massachusetts democrats instructed for Richard Olney for president.

Ed Magoffin, of Harrodsburg, has announced as a candidate for State Senator.

State Senator Burns, of Michigan, was acquitted at Grand Rapids of the charge of bribery.

The taking of testimony in the 11th district Congressional contest will begin at Washington May 3.

The democratic and silver parties of Nevada have appointed an unopposed delegation to the national convention.

The bill passed by the House providing for free trade in leaf tobacco will not be considered by the Senate at this session.

The House sent the Naval Appropriation Bill back to conference. The Senate completed consideration of the Sundry Civil Bill.

Senator Gorman says he does not know on whom the democrats will unite, but that the party is going to present a united front and win.

It is said that six members of the Missouri Legislature are to receive $10 a day for acting as bookmakers' clerks at the St. Louis race track this summer.

Judge W. H. Prewitt has withdrawn from the race for county judge of Boyle. He has made the county a most efficient officer during his incumbency.

The House passed by a party vote the bill providing for joint statehood of Oklahoma and Indian Territory under the name of Oklahoma, and New Mexico and Arizona as Arizona.

Democrat of the First congressional district will present the name of Congressman Ollie M. James to the State convention as a candidate for delegate-at-large to the National convention.

Former Senator Lindsay says he holds a high opinion of Judge Parker's character and ability, but expresses displeasure with the methods pursued by Hill in the New York convention.

The committee for this Congressional district will meet at Lawrenceburg Friday, (29th), instead of the 30th, to determine the time and manner of selecting the democratic nominee for Congress.

The general election in Louisiana resulted in a clean sweep for the democrats. A large vote was polled in New Orleans, but elsewhere the voters were apathetic. Only a few Negro votes were cast.

West Virginia democrats held at Charleston the largest convention seen for many years in that State. After a stormy session, the meeting ended harmoniously. The convention elected an unopposed delegation to the St. Louis convention.

Gov. Herrick sent a message to the Ohio Legislature calling a halt in appropriations. He declares that unless the revenues of the State are increased $500,000, appropriations made and contemplated must be reduced nearly $1,000,000 to prevent a deficit.

Former Secretary Carlisle says New York democrats are satisfied with the endorsement of Judge Parker. Mr. Carlisle, who is a personal acquaintance of the Judge, says he is an honest, conservative and able man and will, if elected, make a good president.

New York democrats instructed for Parker. The delegates at large are David B. Hill, Edward Murphy, Jr., George Ehret and James Ridgeway Ehret is a Tammany man and some of the district delegates are Tammany men, but the convention adopted the unit rule, to which Tammany declared it had no objection. Tammany's minority report praised and endorsed Judge Parker as the most available man for president, but did not instruct.

HERE AND THERE.

Hon. Gerald T. Flinn's candidacy for democratic delegate from the Third district is announced.

In Beckham county, Chester Tabor, aged 16, was accidentally shot and killed by his older brother.

The Farmers' & Merchants' Bank of Clay City, Ind., was dynamited by robbers, who got away with $6,000.

The population of St. Louis, according to its new city directory, is 693,075, an increase of 37,208 over last year.

The nonresident insurance companies will file suit in Ohio to resist the efforts of the officials of that State to assess them for back taxes.

The second trial of Claude Hill for the killing of Dalley Wilson in Pulaski resulted in conviction of manslaughter and a verdict of three years in the penitentiary.

Harrod Lucas and William Norris, whose home is near Parksville, have been lodged in the Danville jail, charged with stealing two horses from Wm. Schulte, of Grant county.

In an encounter at Cumberland Gap, John Wright was killed and Silas Isam wounded. Both men were suspected of robbery, and an attempt was being made to arrest them.

Mrs. Mary Turpin, aged 83, died at Richmond. She is survived by her husband, who is 87 years old, and seven children. The couple had been married 53 years and this is the first death that has occurred in the family.

Hon. R. C. Warren, of Lincoln, paid the News office a pleasant call yesterday afternoon and talked entertainingly of politics of this Senatorial and Congressional district. Mr. Warren is a candidate for county judge in his county, and should his people honor him with the place he will make one of the best officials that ever sat on the bench. He is an A. I. democrat and could the people of this, his old home county, vote for him, he would win in a walk.—Danville News.

& TITLE CO.,

Stanford, Ky.

No. 76-69 acres of land near Junction City, out in seven fields, 25 acres in cultivation, rest in grass, a nice young orchard and one of the best grape harvests in Kentucky. Party sold 2,500 pounds of grapes last year. Well watered and fenced good. Close to school and churches. A two-story, six room frame dwelling, good barn, crib, etc., all in good repair. Price $1,250.

No. 25, 150,000 acres of cotton land in Mississippi. There is no section of country which offers so many opportunities for profitable investment as the Mississippi Delta which is now fully described as "Prosperity Valley." The timber, becoming more valuable all the time for the reason that the trees are being cut from the North (where the supply of timber is fast diminishing), are constantly increasing their value. The soil is rich and fertile, and the climate is such that the land is unequalled for agricultural purposes. It will produce a bale of cotton to the acre or will grow any other kind of crop raised in the temperate zone. The soil needs no fertilizers and gives a yield which cannot be excelled; taxes are low, the title is perfect and the man who buys Delta farm and timber land is making an investment that he will never regret. This land is divided into tracts ranging from 40 acres to the tract to 10,000 acres to the tract, and prices from $8 per acre to $10 per acre, according to location, etc. We are authorized by the company who owns these lands to state that as other parties are considering the purchase of these lands, we will hold any tract out of the market long enough for the purchaser to make an investigation. About 12,000 acres of this land has been sold by the company since we received this option. For further particulars call at our office.

Flour and Grist Mill, Anderson county, Ky., 35 barrel capacity, covered with iron, built 8 years ago. Steam and water power, the latter 8 months of the year. PRESTON, NO. 922.

This premium saddle stallion of the world will make the season of 1904 at the stable of J. C. Bailey, on Old Lancaster Street, in Stanford, Ky.

Preston is a brown horse, 12 years old, 15 1/2 hands high, a perfect model, with great style, action and speed.

Preston was sired by Washington No. 54, he by Cromwell No. 73, 1st dam Belle by Roderick; 2nd dam by a Denmark horse.

Preston has shown against and defeated all the great show horses of Kentucky, such as Kentucky Artist, owned by J. T. Crenshaw, of Lexington, Ky., and Montgomery Chief, owned by Ball Bros. Why you should breed to Preston

1. Because he is the greatest show horse Kentucky ever produced

2. Because he is siring great show horses, such as Electra that was sold to Senator Vane for $2,000; Rebecca, that sold at New York Exchange to George Watson for $650; Miss Henrietta, owned by Gay Bros., that won more premiums in saddle and combined rings than any three-year-old out in 1903; a yearling colt sold to J. C. Cravins, of Illinois, for $500.

3. Because he is the only saddle stallion that ever sired a team of harness geldings that sold for $5,000.

4. Because he won the championship of the Louisville Horse Show in 1903, shown by Matt S. Cohen, of Richmond, Ky.

5. Because he has won more money in the show ring than any other saddle stallion in Kentucky.

6. I will be glad to show him to any one at my stable and invite those wishing to breed to a fine saddle stallion to see him before breeding. I will stand him at $10 the season or $15 to insure a living colt.
